(1) The motion to seal is DENIED. This is a court of law.
(2) While this case involves a mother of personal identity, I reject the unsupported argument that some of the couple litigating in New York City has any legitimate fear of discrimination from the court in this matter. However, it is a mother's privacy and the children whose medical conditions are out there & will become known to their parents' identities.

Factor 4 is determinative
